

TRAUMA, PTSD & COMPLICATED GRIEF

Effective Assessments and Immediate Interventions for Children, Adolescents and Adults Stress vs. Trauma – two states, two responses. Build your understanding of the impact of trauma, complicated grief and best clinical practices for assessment and immediate interventions with children, adolescents and adults. Learn how trauma impacts the developing brain, body and mind; the three active ingredients for healing along with evidence based interventions to create a firm foundation for resolution.

Session Objectives:

1. Illustrate the effects of trauma on the structure and function of the brain
2. Analyze how grief, bereavement and mourning are accounted for in the DSM-5
3. Determine the etiology and potential impact of traumatic stress using multiple assessment strategies
4. Develop treatment plans based on accurate, thorough assessment
5. Integrate evidence-based interventions to assist the client in coping with the physical and psychological-spiritual manifestations of trauma

Speaker Michael S. Prokop, M.Ed., CCTP, LPC, BCPC

Michael S. Prokop, M.Ed., CCTP, CSP, LPC, BCPC, is a national speaker, Certified Clinical Trauma Professional, consulting school psychologist, Licensed Professional Counselor, American Psychotherapy Association Board Certified PTSD clinician/Board Certified Professional Counselor-Diplomate, sports psychology consultant and is a member of the International Association of Trauma Professions (IATP). He specializes in grief and trauma therapy, relaxation therapy, rational emotive psychotherapy, anger management, mental toughness training, and more. As a consulting psychologist he has conducted hundreds of psychological evaluations of traumatized clients and continues to provide individual and group therapy for clients with various adjustments, intellectual, motivational and emotional challenges. His clinical expertise with traumatized clients is based on a long history of comprehensive professional experiences -- including providing support for children and families impacted by suicide, domestic violence, homicide, child abuse, sexual assault and accidental death.

Michael has authored three children's books regarding adjustment issues and his counseling experiences include more than 25 years in private practice, school districts, part-time at The Developmental Clinic, and the remainder at Kent State University teaching undergraduate psychology classes, graduate level workshops and also providing psychological counseling services for the T.R.I. Program (Toward Retention Intervention). Besides his private practice, he consults in numerous school and agencies and is an adjunct professor at Ashland University. As an entertaining and enthusiastic speaker, he frequently lectures and provides seminars at state and national conferences.
